Being a woman who has been caught in the "woes" of menopause for several years, I have done a considerable amount of research on dealing with this phase of life. I have learned a lot and I believe educating yourself is the first step to dealing with issues. Dr. Cherry's little book, "God's Pathway to Healing: Menopause" is one of the most helpful, concise, and encouraging publications I have come across. I am implementing many of his suggestions, trying the natural herbal remedies, and experiencing great improvement! I highly recommend it to any woman who is dealing with this challenging time of life (or for those who are dealing with the women who are dealing with . . .!
